

*There once was a girl who was trapped in dark
With naught but her shadow for company.
A journey to escape she did embark and her shadow followed distrustfully.*

SHADY PART OF ME

A TOUCHING AND DREAMLIKE ADVENTURE...

Shady Part of Me sends you on an emotional and dream-like journey, with breathtaking artistic direction and the enthralling voice of Hannah Murray (Game of Thrones, Skins).

...ON THE ROAD TO ACCEPTANCE

Play as a little girl and her shadow as they learn to fight together and overcome their deepest emotions.

DON'T FEAR FAILURE

Don't be afraid to experiment!
Face any situation with the ability to turn back time at any moment.

A GIRL AND HER SHADOW

During this initiatory and poignant journey, the duo must learn to cooperate in order to progress through the trials of a dreamlike world.

The little girl

Shadow

Full of doubts, naive and frightened, she fled any source of light to stay hidden in the shadows.

Like an inverted projection, the little girl's shadow represents her more confident side. She will brave any danger to accompany her on the path to freedom.

PLAY WITH LIGHT AND SHADOW

Alternate at any time between the little girl and her shadow in an elegant mix of 3D and 2D gameplay. Cooperation with yourself is at the heart of the experience!

DREAM OR REALITY?

In the beginning there was a little girl, hiding in the shadows for as long as she can remember. Scared and lonely. Then she met her. The other was a speechless shadow. Attached to this body, still hidden in the dark, no one noticed her.

In surreal, entirely handmade environments, cross between dream and reality in an affecting atmosphere rendered in a unique watercolor style.

GATHER ORIGAMI TO UNRAVEL THE STORY FURTHER

During your trip, use your reflective spirit to collect origami and learn more about the story of the little girl and her shadow.

ABOUT

Based in Paris, the Douze Dixièmes studio is made up of 7 passionate members with a background in film animation and talents from the video game industry. From the meeting of these two worlds was born this unique project, with a haunting artistic direction and narrative as deep as it is overwhelming.

*Hand in hand, we break free from this nether.
Step by step, we will rise together.*
